MEDIA RELEASE: Being Streetwise - Free workshop from CIRCA

CIRCA congratulates the young people of Norfolk our Island who have just completed their secondary education at the Norfolk Island Central School. Some may be leaving the Island to seeking to further education or employment opportunities.

To help with the many issues involved in relocating to much larger communities, CIRCA has arranged a community education seminar on "Being Streetwise". There will be segments on seeking work, renting, vehicles, insurance, banking and personal support, plus helpful hints from police and a young Islander recently returned to Norfolk.

CIRCA invites all interested people to attend on Tuesday 22nd December at 5.30 p.m. at the Community Information Centre - opposite Borry's garage on Taylors Road. There is no charge for attendance, but prior registration is essential. For further information and to register please phone the Community Information Centre any weekday between 9.30 a.m. and 1.00 p.m. on 22447 or email circa@norfolk.net.nf Enquiries may also be made to Chelsea during business hours on 22003.

CIRCA and Community Information Centre

Norf'k CIRCA Inc. provides services to callers in person at the Community Information Centre, by telephone on 22447 and through an email network which currently has around 100 members. It provides assistance for all in the community and for visitors to the Island to obtain updated information on services available, where to locate many types of data and assistance with access to sources of funding from both government and non-government organisations for programmes within Norfolk Island. It also publishes a calendar of local events each month and welcomes receipt of information from community organisations for inclusion in the calendar.

Members of the public are invited to join the Association (for which membership is free) and to provide data updates so that the information available is current. The Community Information Centre is open each weekday from 9.30 a.m. to 1.00 p.m. and will also be open during the Christmas Pageant in the evening of Thursday 17th December. Information requests, registrations for the email network and details about the Community Information Centre or CIRCA may be directed to telephone 22447 or email circa@admin.gov.nf
